Rev. Beers Gives Closing Message Of Series To Young Men.

GAMBLING IN ALL FORMS IS ASSAILED

Prayer And Faith Needed To Build Christian Life, He Says.

The closing message by Rev. G. A. Beers of the Baptist church in the series of talks to young men was given Sunday evening. The topic was, "The Young Man Victorious." The preacher's text, First John 5:4, 5 and First Samuel 17:50.

"Godliness is the basis for living a victorious life," Mr. Beers said. "Human progress, individual and in the aggregate, oft is blocked by 'giants'."

"As the 12 spies sent to spy out the Promised Land saw men of huge stature, and various difficulties that seemed insurmountable to the majority of that band and were afraid to go forward in the contest, so man when he begins to get a vision of the job of real living oft shrinks from the tasks."

Giants In Path

"Giants" in the path to a liberal education, turn many back and they labor all their lives at a great disadvantage. The vision of real work throws a scare into lives that are looking for a 'soft job'."

"The spirit of reckless spending dislikes the 'Giant.' Thrift as he bars the path to such thoughtless living. To live a life of self control and command the good land of manhood presents another 'Giant' that causes consternation to the weakling. Ten men were scared out, all praise to the two, Joshua and Caleb who said, 'we are able.' They, and they only, entered Canaan."

"The young man must face, fight and conquer the 'Giant' that opposes his progress. David's victory over Goliath is a lesson of tremendous import and inspiration. This fight was one of the greatest in history, a mighty deed of courage, faith and confidence. Goodness overcoming evil. That which was born of God conquering that which lifts its voice and hand against God."

"Youth overcome the 'Giant' that threatened his standard of manly purity and Christian integrity. He (Continued on fifth page.)"

U. S. STARTS FIGHT ON LUMBER TRUST

Suit Seeking Dissolution Of Trust Involves 68 Corporations.

Washington, April 30.—The government today began legal action to dissolve the alleged lumber trust.

A suit in equity against the Western Pine Manufacturers association was filed on behalf of the government in the United States district court at St. Paul. Approximately 60 corporations and 68 individuals, officers in various lumber concerns, were named as defendants.

The government asked the court to issue an immediate injunction against the corporation and individuals named, preventing them from continuing the practices which the government charges constitutes a combination and conspiracy in restraint of interstate trade and commerce in lumber.

The suit today was instituted after many months of investigation and consideration by government officials. It was said at the department of justice. The many complaints from builders and business interests in the country over the high prices of building materials were a big factor in getting the federal authorities into action.

HARRIS OUSTER ILLEGAL, RULING

Civil Service Board Says Specific Charges Must Be Brought.

Prosecutor Says Herdsman Was Appointed Illegally By Board.

The removal of Lyle B. Harris as superintendent of the county infirmary by the Columbiana county commissioners was not done legally, according to an opinion received Monday by the county commissioners from the state civil service commission.

The commissioners, after ordering the removal of Harris, sought the advice of the state commission as to the legality of their action. The reply received Monday quoted Section 480 of the civil service code of Ohio, governing the removal from office of employees of departments, declared that the commissioners' action was irregular in that the charges as presented to the civil service commission were not specific.

The commissioners were notified that they must present specific charges against Supt. Harris and these must be submitted on the proper form, a copy of which was enclosed in the notification.

Will Renew Charges

Commissioner Conrad Berg, who is active in seeking the removal of Harris, declared Monday that the commissioners would get busy at once and would present charges in proper form to the state civil service commission before the end of next week.

Commissioners Berk and Kerr voted for Harris' removal and Commissioner McNichol against it.

Supt. Harris has filed his answer to the charges filed by the commissioners against him, in which he entered a blanket denial to the charges of mismanagement preferred by Berg.

Harris scored again this morning when Prosecutor Jesse Hanley rendered an opinion to the county commissioners upon their request in which he said that the county had no authority of law to appoint J. C. Mackintosh, Jr., of St. Clair township, herdsman at the county home. This was the first time that the prosecuting attorney has been asked for a direct opinion in any feature of the action of County Commissioner Conrad Berg to remove Harris as superintendent of the Columbiana county home.

Appointment Illegal

Mackintosh by resolution of the commissioner was elected herdsman at the county home last Monday. When the minutes of this meeting were read today Commissioner Patrick McNicol brought up the question as to whether the board under the law had the right to make such an appointment.

Hanley was then asked for an opinion in the matter and a little later told the commissioners just how far they could go. In this respect it was explained that the county commissioners have a right to recommend to the superintendent of the county home the appointment of such people but that the appointment must be made by the superintendent of the home after the county commissioners have provided funds to take care of such an office or position.

BIG RUM RUNNING PLOT BARED WITH RAILMEN'S ARREST

Dry Agents Have Details Of Plot To Bring Cuban Whisky To Ohio.

Cleveland, April 30.—With six railroad employees under arrest here and in Columbus today and arrests of scores of others expected shortly, federal and state prohibition agents claimed to have in their hands almost complete details of a $10,000,000 rum running conspiracy to bring imported Scotch and other whiskeys into Ohio.

Deputy Prohibition Commissioner Frank S. Evans, who arrived from Columbus yesterday to take charge of the investigation, said that possibly 100 persons would be linked up in the conspiracy.

First news of the plot came with the seizure here of 524 quarts of imported Scotch whisky late Saturday afternoon, as it was being unloaded from a "Florida special" at the East 55th st. Pennsylvania station. The booze was contained in 46 suit cases. A second seizure of 46 suit cases was made in Columbus early yesterday morning. At the same time, yesterday morning, Richard Suter and two train porters, Richard Suter and Ernest Downey, station master; George Reed, baggage master; James Hines and Harry Burns, porters, were under arrest here, while warrants had been issued for the apprehension of a brakeman and conductor on a Pennsylvania train.

According to Evans a day of booze estimated at 5,000 quarts daily has been coming into Ohio from Havana. He said he believed the total would reach a million quarts, valued at $10 a quart.

Possible confiscation of railroad rolling stock used in transporting the liquor was under consideration, but definite action today had not been determined in this particular. Railroad officials were co-operating with federal and state officials in running down those guilty.

JUDGE R.S. AMBLER EXPIRES SUDDENLY OF HEART TROUBLE

End Comes Unexpectedly Early Monday At His Home In Canton.

Judge Ralph Steele Ambler, former Salem man and prominent in legal circles throughout the state and nation, died suddenly of heart trouble at 2 a. m. Monday at his home in Canton. He was in his 64th year.

While Judge Ambler had not been feeling well for some time, no concern had been felt as to his condition. Last Friday he attended the funeral of A. K. Mansfield at this city. Sunday he spent at Congress lake and returning in the evening he retired early. During the night he suffered an attack of acute heart trouble and died before a physician could arrive.

Judge Ralph S. Ambler was born July 24, 1859, in Salem, the son of Judge and Mrs. J. A. Ambler. He was graduated from Salem High school and later taught school at Cold Run academy near Lisbon. He was graduated from Adelbert college at Western Reserve university, then located at Hudson, in 1883 and was admitted to the bar in 1885.

In 1899 he was appointed common pleas judge to fill the unexpired term of Judge I. H. Taylor and was elected to that office the next two terms, serving 11 years on the bench. In his first election to the Columbiana-Stark district bench, he secured all but 15 of the entire vote cast.

In 1911 Judge Ambler joined Atty. Atlee Pomerene and brother in a law firm known as Pomerene, Ambler & Pomerene with which he was associated at the time of his death.

Several times the Republicans tried to persuade him to become a candidate for congress, but he declined. Judge Ambler was a member of the Stark County, Ohio State and (Continued on fifth page.)

FRIENDSHIP, LOVE, MUST BE INSPIRED OF GOD-DR. GORDON

Preaches To Odd Fellows Who Attend Presbyterian Church.

TAKE FELLOWSHIP IN ACTION AS TEXT

Lodgemen Celebrate 104th Anniversary Of Founding Of Order.

"There could be no friendship that was real, no love that was holy and no truth that will stand the test of judgment except it be inspired of God."

"There is not anything that can inspire you to go out and do your duty to your fellowman like the consciousness of God in you."

"There is power in all organizations. It may be power for good or evil. Good team work is essential in every organization."

Thus spoke Dr. P. H. Gordon, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Sunday morning when this congregation had as its guests members of Amity Lodge No. 124, I. O. O. F., and its allied orders, including the Rebekahs, who attended worship in observance of the 104th anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellowship in America.

Dr. Gordon's theme was "Fellowship in Action" and his text was "Thou God Seest Me." His discourse was one of exaltation of God, almighty, all powerful and ever present, whose all seeing eye is ever upon us.

The speaker brought out the thought that we of today are just as liable to find a substitute for God as the men and women of Bible times did.

"Have you placed God first in your life? Have you said there shall be no other God but this God?" he asked.

"God has placed in your heart and mine a self recording instrument that records the things we do and think and are and by and by God will open it."

"There is a form of Godliness that is not Godliness. There is just as much difference between the form of Godliness and Godliness as between a sound tree and a hollow tree."

God asks us to glorify him by a life devoted to him every day. To live the life God wants us to live is our business."

The choir sang an anthem, "Hark! Hark! My Soul," with Misses Ora Vincent and Grace P. Orr taking the solo parts. "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me," was sung by a male chorus.

An inspector will sell the tickets necessary for the collection of the refuse and the collectors will not collect any money.

A hearty compliance with the plea for co-operation was evident in the section visited Monday, it was reported.

The district to be covered Tuesday includes the section bounded by Ellis-wood ave. on the west, Garfield ave. on the east and Main st. on the south.

Prime Sport in Swordfishing.

The barkentine Monitor recently arrived at Seattle from a cruise in the South seas, bringing the report that a swordfish, evidently mistaking the boat for a whale, attacked from underneath.
It came up with such momentum that its sword was driven through a six-inch plank in the hull. When investigation was made to discover the cause of a leak, the fish's sword was found, minus the teeth, in the thick plank.

What is regarded as a prime summer sport is swordfishing along the northern sea coast of the United States.
The swordfish is harpooned, the har-pooner standing behind an iron protection as high as his waist. The swordfish preys on schools of spawning fishes. While frequently seen in the Pacific waters, it is a native of the North Atlantic, the Mediterranean sea and the vicinity of the Antilles. It becomes as large as a shark, and has a mackerel-shaped body.

The Dadaist.

Miss Catherine Wendell of New York, who is to marry Lord Forester-ter, heir to the earl of Carnarvon, is as witty as she is beautiful. At a studio
she said one day:

"The new movements in painting—cubism and dadaism and so on—make it difficult for us amateurs to criticize discreetly."

"A very modern painter was about to show me a new painting. As he took the cloth from off the easel I clapped my hands and said:

"Oh, how lovely!"

"Wait a minute," said he. "It's upside down."

"Then he turned the painting round and I said:

"Oh, now it's lovelier still!"

Saving Wild Life.

Lovers of woodland life will be heartened to learn that efforts for the conservation of the bison, or buffalo, as we more commonly say in America, have succeeded to the extent that there are 3,000 more of the animals now than two decades ago. The fact is of chief significance as showing a way of preventing the extinction of valuable or interesting species of wild life. If the states, with the co-operation of their citizens, will do half as much for the preservation of birds and game as the national government has done for the bison during these last 20 years, a stupid and shameful chapter of our history will be rewritten in happier terms.—Atlanta Journal.

spells of palpitation. My nerves drove me almost frantic and for nights at a time I could hardly sleep almost a shadow of my former self."

"The Tanlac treatment brought almost immediate improvement, and in a few weeks I was off my milk diet and eating every kind of food on the market. I have taken five bottles now and have more than recovered all I lost during my long illness. I million bottles sold.

COAST TO COAST NON-STOP FLIGHT TO BE ATTEMPTED

Army's Record Fliers Are On Long Island Ready For Hop-off.

Washington, April 30. — Lieut. Bailey G. Kelly and John A. Macready, of the army air service, America's greatest aerial "record hunters," within the next week plan to undertake the setting up of still another world record by negotiating a non-stop, coast-to-coast flight, it was learned here today.

Details of the contemplated trip for continuous flying from Mitchell Field, Long Island, N. Y., to San Diego, Cal., a distance of approximately 2,500 miles and necessitating an endurance of about 32 hours in the air. The flight will be made in the same thick-wing monoplane which Kelly and Macready recently smashed the "hours in the air" record, and in which last fall they covered almost 2,000 miles of a cross-continent flight before meeting with disaster.

The two young aviators are now at Mitchell Field tuning up their air boat and, according to advices to the air service here, the T-2 will be in shape today. The hop-off is dependent only upon the weather, and both fliers will keep in close touch with the weather bureau waiting for a forecast of generally fair weather over the entire country.

Along Reverse Route

The attempted non-stop, Atlantic to Pacific flight of last fall was laid along exactly the reverse route from that to be negotiated this time. Last October, Kelly and Macready took off at San Diego, but after flying nearly 2,000 miles were forced down at Indianapolis because of a leaking water-jacket.

Reversal of the route has one great advantage, but equally a disadvantage. Last year's flight was made with the wind. The tremendous load of gasoline necessary to keep the motors running on the flight, however, weighted the machine to a point where little altitude could be attained, and in crossing the Rocky mountains the pilots were forced to carefully pick passes and low ranges which could be topped.

The new flight, therefore, will be made in the face of the wind, but the load will be lightened sufficiently to permit easy passage over the Rockies. Kelly and Macready at Dayton, O., recently smashed all existing world records by remaining continuously in the air for 36 hours, four minutes and 31 seconds. This time, they assert, is more than sufficient in which to span the continent. Also, until recently their San Diego-Indianapolis flight stood as a record for non-stop distance.

The T-2, upon which will depend the hopes for American supremacy, carries 725 gallons of gasoline, divided into three tanks. Larger capacity oil tanks, reserve water tanks, an auxiliary radiator and an oil radiator are other features. A dual control permits the two pilots to relieve each other.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RETURNS TO DESK

Washington, April 30.—After convalescing for two months in Florida and North Carolina, Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, who has been a "very sick man" since last winter, returned to Washington today to again assume his dual role as head of the department of justice and political adviser in chief to President Harding.

Although the attorney general plainly showed the effects of his long illness, he told friends who greeted him at the Union station that he was feeling greatly improved and that he was anxious to get back on the job.

When the attorney general left the capital in March to go to Florida with the president, it was necessary to carry him to the train, but today he walked unassisted to his automobile.

It will be some weeks, according to his physicians, before Mr. Daugherty will have fully recovered, but they have yielded to his wish that he be permitted to give personal attention to some of the more important legal problems now confronting the government.

CHEATED OF JUST REWARD

Oldtime English Inventor Unable to Get Recognition and Died Broken-Hearted.

It seems always to have been true that a pioneer of any invention which is afterward to become indispensable must suffer misfortune, and perhaps even perish, before his creation can win the recognition it deserves.

This was the case with the steel loom for knitting stockings, invented in the sixteenth century by William Lee.

Lee took his invention to Queen Elizabeth, but she withheld her patronage. Again he improved his machine, so that it would knit silk stockings—the queen's love of silk hosiery had been one of her chief reasons for disinterest—but again he was disappointed at not receiving a royal grant.

Things were no better under James I, so he went to France, and when success was almost within his grasp at the French court the assassination of the king balked him again. Broken-hearted, he died, but in the next century Oliver Cromwell granted a patent on his device to the Company of Framework Knitters.

GIVE "OLD PEOPLE'S PARTY"

Iceland Young Folk Hold Entertainment Once a Year, and Call It Gamalmennasamtali.

What a word! Translated it means "old people's party"—an institution that is held once a year round Christmas in the little fishing town of Isafjord in Iceland. The party, which is given by a union of 90 young people, is the one big event in the lives of the old people of the place. They begin to talk about it in March, and it is their chief topic of conversation until December. Early in the year, too, the 90 members of the union begin to make preparations, for, as there are to be between 300 and 400 old people, much preliminary work is necessary. For example, the young men and women must see that good "party" clothes are provided for all the old people who need them; it would not do for them to go in shabby clothes. The party must have an air of prosperity as well as good cheer.

The festival starts at five o'clock in the evening and does not close until on the following morning. First there is a big tea. Then when all are satisfied and things have been cleared away comes a play, which the old people dearly love; then there is a concert, during which all the old Icelandic and Danish songs are sung. After the concert the young men and women play games with the old people, and then wind up with all the old-fashioned dances. And they must see that each old person has at least one dance with some member of the union.

During the war the old people would often ask anxiously: "Will there be a party this year?" For they realized that it was almost impossible to get fruit of any kind or the sugar with which to make the great variety of little cakes of which the old people are so fond. "Oh, yes," was the customary answer, "the party will take place at the usual time." And it did, for the 90 young members denied themselves sugar and fruit so that the old people would not be disappointed.—Youth's Companion.

USE OLD ROMAN RESERVOIRS

Sources of Water Supply Constructed Centuries Ago Employed by People of the Holy Land.

The Pools of Solomon—which have nothing to do with that monarch except that they are located near the gardens named for him—were constructed by Roman engineers to supply a population that must have been much the size of that which occupies the Holy land today. They consist of three large reservoirs with a total capacity of 40,500,000 gallons, and are situated about eight miles from the capital.

Two have been cleaned out, the leaks that have developed during centuries of disuse have been stopped up, and Jerusalem has waterworks as modern as the heart of an engineer could desire.

Even the surface aqueduct and tunnels that the Romans left have been repaired and are in use, connecting the pools with their source of supply, a large spring rising in the cavern called Bir Darash.

"Rat Tail" Cigars' Days Numbered.

Four old men in Pittsburgh, all upward of sixty-five, are engaged in rolling a certain form of "smoke" known as the "rat tail." The rat tail, which is often confused with the stogie, is a long thin, hand-wrapped roll of tobacco similar in appearance to the rodent's tail. These old men are said to have been trying to teach their art to younger men and women without success. The stogie, also indigenous to Pittsburgh, differs in waist girth and in other respects from the rat tail. Rat tails are tightly wrapped and stogies are more loosely rolled. The tobacco also differs.

When the first Conestoga wagons rolled their way over the Alleghenies the Indians who lived on the site of Fort Duquesne traded with the pioneers the rough outlines of what came later to be developed as stogies. The name Conestoga became corrupted to stogie.

Indian Mummy Centuries Old.

Wrapped in tattered deerskin robes and covered by a piece of a coarse grass matting probably woven by the hands of an Indian squaw centuries ago, the partly mummified remains of a prehistoric Indian have been discovered under an overhanging bluff on the Cowskin river, near Noel, Mo., archeologists announced.

The party making the discovery is in charge of M. R. Harrington and represents the Museum of the American Indian, Heye foundation, of New York city.

"We regard the find as particularly interesting," Mr. Harrington said, "because it reveals the mode of dress of these early Indians, whom we have called, for convenience, the Ozark Bluff Dwellers."

Everybody Glad.

A long-winded inquirer for Frank Henley, adjutant of the Indiana department of the American Legion, had been talking to one of the attaches of the department for about ten minutes, despite the fact she was trying to get rid of him all that time. He kept repeating:

"I'm glad I called, anyway, I got to talk to you."

Finally the young woman at the telephone, in a tone meant to be frigid and crushing, said:

"I'm glad you're glad you called," and slammed the receiver down with a bang.—Indianapolis News.

HAMMER MURDERESS REPORTED CAPTURED

Mrs. Clara Phillips, brutal hammer murderess of pretty Mrs. Alberta Meadows of Los Angeles, who later escaped from the Los Angeles jail, where she was confined on a sentence to life imprisonment, is reported under arrest in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, with Jesse Carson, alleged Los Angeles firebug, and Mrs. Carson. Armour Phillips, her husband, an oil promoter, is under arrest in Los Angeles, charged with being an accessory to her escape. The diagram shows how the slayer got out of the Los Angeles jail, with the aid of confederates.

FERREN'S MEN GET STILL AT NEGLEY

East Palestine, April 30.—East Palestine raiders late last night swooped down upon the residence of Walter Lesky in Negley, two miles south of this place, and confiscated a still which was in operation and 10 gallons of whisky.

Pleading guilty to charges of manufacturing and possessing illicit whisky, Lesky was ordered to pay $500 for the former charge and $250 for the latter. Lesky is in jail here. Whether he is sent to the Stark county workhouse at Canton, in accordance with arrangements just made by this city, remains to be seen.

John Bandin, taken in a raid near Lisbon last week, was fined $500 yesterday morning by Mayor Ferren. He paid part and arranged to pay the rest the first of this week. Bandin has been freed under bond.

FAIR DIRECTORS INSPECT GROUNDS

The directors of the Columbiana county fair held a meeting Saturday afternoon in which they inspected the fair grounds and figured on some permanent improvements.

One of these will be a large floral hall which will stand on the hill near the race track grandstand. This building will be two stories high and will combine exhibition room and a large amusement hall which will occupy the second floor. Bids will be asked at once for this work.

Another feature will be the widening of the race track and turns to increase the efficiency of the track and permit of better time being made. The present track has been rather narrow. Large fields of entries in some races were handicapped greatly for this reason. Other minor features are planned.

This, together with the improvements already under way by the Lisbon Park & Amusement company, will make the county fair grounds the best in this part of Ohio in attractiveness and space for the different amusements planned.

HOUGH, NOVELIST, DIES IN CHICAGO

Chicago, April 30.—Emerson Hough, novelist and author for 39 years of popular works, died in a hospital here today. An operation was performed Saturday night in an effort to relieve him of a chronic intestinal malady which attacked him afresh last Thursday.

Hough's most recent work that greatly heightened his popularity was "The Covered Wagon," adapted only lately to motion pictures.

The author's widow is his sole survivor. Hough was born in Newton, Ill., and was 66 years old. He was graduated in 1889 from the State university of Iowa.

COURT NEWS

Injured Man Asks $5,000

Stating that the industrial commission of Ohio had rejected a claim for compensation for injuries received while he was employed by the International Pulp Stone company of East Liverpool, J. P. Fleck has filed a petition in common pleas court asking for judgment against the company in the sum of $5,000 and that the finding of the industrial commission be set aside.

Fleck states that while he was employed by the Pulp Stone company, on July 12, 1917, a piece of stone fell on his head fracturing the skull slightly and otherwise injuring him and causing a loss of memory and other injuries to him. He states that he has expended $350 in cash and credits in an effort to obtain relief from his injuries and that he is not benefited.

Ask $8,000 Judgment On 2-Year-Old Note

Alleging that the defendants, Stephen X. Rider and Nettie Rider, on March 5, 1920, executed a note in the sum of $8,000 at New Waterford in favor of A. S. Ferrall and W. W. Wallace, the plaintiffs have entered suit in common pleas court asking for judgment in this amount with interest.

The plaintiffs state that the note was secured by a mortgage on two tracts of land in Fairfield township totalling 196 acres and they ask that this mortgage be foreclosed and the property sold to satisfy the claim.

TURKS AND FRENCH FIGHT OVER SYRIA

French Send More Troops As Hostilities Are Threatened.

Paris, April 30.—Hostilities between the Turks and French were threatened today along the Syrian frontier. Both sides are concentrating troops in that zone.

Following a conference among Gen. Pelle, French high commissioner at Constantinople, and head of the French delegation in the Near East peace conference at Lausanne, Gen. Weygand, chief of staff to Marshall Foch; President Millerand of France and Premier Poincaré, an announcement was made that the government decided to send two additional colonial divisions to Syria.

There are already 26,000 French troops in Syria.

Gen. Pelle reported he had received advice that the Turks were passing troops along the Syrian border and that the attitude of the Turks was most threatening.

Turkey demanded that the French evacuate Syria. The French refused, maintaining they were entitled by their league of nations mandate to hold and administer the region.

It is understood the differences over Syria was one of the reasons that Angora gave rich trade concessions to the American Chester group of exploiters.

WAGE RAISE GIVEN TO STARK CARMEN

Carmen in the employ of the Stark Electric Railway company have been given a substantial boost in wages, it was learned today.

Under a new year's agreement just signed by representatives of the railway company and the carmen's union, interurban and city platform men will draw an increase of six cents an hour starting May 1.

The new scale supplants the year's agreement signed last April to remain operative until April 30 of this year. Under the old scale interurban carmen received 45, 47 and 50 cents an hour based upon the length of service.

The new scale for interurban platform men calls for an hourly wage ranging from 50 to 56 cents an hour. City carmen, now getting 42, 45 and 47 cents an hour, depending upon length of service in the company's employ, will draw 48, 51 and 53 cents an hour.

The boost in wages affects about 10 men operating interurban cars of the company through Canton, Alliance, Sebring and Salem and city carmen on the two Alliance lines.

9 LIVES, 7 SHIPS ARE LOST IN STORM

Boston, April 30.—A storm which for 15 hours ravaged the New England coast, took a toll of nine lives and wrecked at least seven vessels, it was apparent today.

Seven members of the crew of the Boston steam collier Seacomet were lost when that vessel foundered a mile from the Vineyard Sound lightship. Twenty-two other persons aboard, including the wife of the wireless operator, reached the lightship in life boats.

The negro cook of the rampan British steam yacht Thelma Phoebe lost his life when he became panic-stricken and leaped overboard with a mattress as the vessel struck on Fisher's island, Vineyard Sound.

The other members of the crew were taken off by the coast guard.

The vessel is rapidly going to pieces and considerable of her wet cargo is being carried ashore by the sea. Captain George Gardner of the coal barge Bradlock, went down with that vessel when she went on the rocks at Point Judith. Other members of the crew were rescued.

Welty, Indicted, Puts Ouster Up To His Students

Former Congressman Tells Class He Shouldn't Be Their Teacher.

Lima, April 30.—Benjamin F. Welty, former congressman, does not believe a man under indictment for a grave offense is the proper person to teach a class in Sunday school.

For that reason, Welty has given the young men's class of the Market st. Presbyterian church, of which he is teacher, the privilege of deciding whether they want him to remain.

"I'm under indictment in the federal court. It's for a grave offense. I say in all earnestness I am not guilty," Welty told his class.

"I do not want to fill this place as teacher if there is one iota of feeling against me. I want each one of you boys to talk this over with your parents. Then I want you to hold a meeting at which I shall not be present, and take a secret vote.

"No one must know how the vote voted. If there is one vote cast against me, I want to resign. If there is a 100 per cent vote for me, then I will remain."

The boys promised to hold a meeting at which action will be taken.

Welty was indicted last Tuesday in federal court in Toledo. He was charged with collecting $1,247.64 for obtaining $3,700 on a soldier's claim for Franklin R. Strayer, now in Toledo State hospital. The law permits a charge of but $3.

GIVES SERMON ON COMING OF CHRIST

Rev. Coffin Says Prophecies Concerning This Age Are Fulfilled.

When Rev. M. M. Coffin, pastor of the First Friends church, preached the third of a series of sermons on "The Second Coming of Christ" Sunday evening he declared that "Jesus Christ is victor and that every enemy of the soul of man is a defeated foe. Death itself is a conquered and defeated foe."

Rev. Mr. Coffin spoke of the dispensations into which the history of the Bible had been divided and pointed out that every one had ended with the judgments of God.

"It would appear that we are nearing the close of this, the dispensation of grace. Nowhere in the scripture did Jesus promise that the world would become wordless," he said.

"It seems every prophecy concerning this age has been fulfilled. This is a day when men and women are drifting farther and farther from God. Sin is multiplying on every hand."

"What would be the condition in this community if every God-fearing man and woman were taken away? But that is going to take place. There is to be a translation of the saints. This is the Christian's hope. This is the Christian's prospect."

At 7:30 p. m. Monday the mission ary committee of the church will meet at the church.

Prayer service at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. Thursday evening there will be a special meeting of the finance committee at the church. Friday evening the choir will meet for rehearsal.

JUDGE AMBLER

American bar associations and of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. He was president of the Stark County Bar association and of the bar library association. He was a trustee of the McKinley Memorial association and a member of the special committee of the American bar association which proposed that the date of the presidential inauguration be changed. In 1920-21 he served as president of the Canton Chamber of Commerce. Among the things he sponsored was the commission form of government for Canton.

Value Of Women's Clothing Doubled

Washington, April 30.—More than a billion dollars' worth of women's clothing was manufactured in 1921 while in 1914 there was less than half that amount.

Value of such products was placed at $1,022,743,000 for 1921. In a census bureau announcement today which gave the 1919 total as $1,208,500,000 and that of 1914 as $473,888,000. The statistics, which include girls' and children's wear, do not take into account the value of millinery, hosiery, coats, corsets or knit goods which in 1919 brought the production value to $2,253,949,570. The total value represents manufacturers' prices; no statistics are available based on retail prices, which would run up the total considerably.

Of the 7,661 establishments in 1921 New York state had 4,997, Pennsylvania 3,117 and Illinois 333. Persons engaged in the industry numbered 1,000,000 and salaries and wages amounted to $226,500,000.

GODLINESS IS BASIS

saw the evil against man and the sin against God, and his soul revolted, rebelled and victoriously resisted. The name Christian was not then known but long centuries before the Christian era, we have in this act an illustration of Christian godliness.

Forgive Your Enemies
"Another lesson in Joseph's life is his victory over those who had wronged him, anger, hatred and revenge have reddened the soil of earth and the blood of slain brothers cries aloud unto God. The spirit of boasting and belligerence often characterize human kind. From early childhood up man sadly inclines to fits of anger and deeds of violence.

"Downright brutality is a curse to man, an evidence of an unregenerate nature. Joseph, when afforded a good chance to 'get even' with those who had so shamefully wronged him, freely forgave his brothers and abundantly provided for their safety. This, too, was centuries before, Jesus said, 'love your enemies.' The grace of God in human lives makes such victories possible.

"The battle for honesty and uprightness. The demon of dishonesty gets into human lives and men are tempted to cheat and defraud in business. All of us have 'been done.' Have we 'done' anybody?

"Parents who have been 'tricky' in their dealings pass the weakness down to their children. Often a professing Christian shows that he or she has more love for money than for maintaining their good name; and 'sell out' lose their influence as Christians, hurt the cause they profess to live, disappoint their Lord.

Honesty Is Needed
"The great industrial problem will be settled when both sides accept and live out the principle of 'an honest day and an honest pay.' Someone wrote, 'an honest man is the noblest work of God.' The Book declares that, 'a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches.'

"Man is tempted by the gambling instinct. The vicious, dishonest, dishonorable, debasing habit of gambling is alarmingly prevalent. Men of all ages in places of public resort, lodge rooms, homes, back alleys and secluded places indulge in this pernicious habit. Many so-called 'good people,' sometimes church members—are alike guilty.

"A mother returning from a party displayed a trophy she had won at their card table. Her wayward son displaying a 'roll' replied, 'that's nothing, see what I 'cleaned up' down at our party. Both were gamblers, the mother the greater sinner.

"Gambler's gain is ill-gotten, dishonest, robbery. Many poor workingmen are 'bleeced' out of their pay, while their family suffers. Many a gambler's den is 'protected' when it should be 'pulled.' In my old pastorate, such places existed. Salem, also, I keep hearing, is menaced by such sinks of iniquity.

Prayer And Faith
"The fight for victory in personal Christian living. A great victory is won when we turn from sin and find new life in Jesus Christ. But great as it is, it is only the beginning. We must maintain this conquest. 'If ye continue,' said Jesus, 'then are ye my disciples.'

"Like any other course in life, we must 'carry on'—We must become students of God's word and intelligent members of the kingdom. Grass ignorance exists in Christian America among those who profess Christ and have His Word in their homes.

"The Christian must become a man of prayer. If in the kingdom; if forgiven of his sins, he prayed, 'God be merciful to me a sinner,' or a daily prayer. Others, also, prayed for him. He must, likewise develop this holy art and become a man of prayer.

Practical Service
"He must become a man of faith. Hebrews 11, is a record of faith. Christians are still making similar records. Too few represent the church at the prayer meetings.

"The spiritual vitality of the church is measured by those who through study and prayer are led to believe God and obey the leadership of the Holy Spirit. This means that the Christian life must be one of practical service. Jesus said, 'I send you into the world... Be faithful and I'll be with you to the end.'

"The valuation of the Christian as an individual; of the Christian church as an organization, is not computed in money, buildings or numbers, but in the actual service that man or woman or church renders to the community to which they or it are assigned of God."

ASSEMBLY PASSES 14 MEASURES OVER GOVERNOR'S VETO

Three Of Taxation Program Measures Included In Adopted List.

Columbus, April 30.—The 85th general assembly shortly before midnight Saturday completed the business of its regular session and recessed until Dec. 31 after passing over the veto of Gov. Donahey 14 measures, including three of the four bills which comprised the Republican taxation program.

In addition to passing the 14 measures, the legislature inserted in the general appropriation measure and that providing for sundries appropriations most of the items stricken out by the chief executive when they were submitted to him for his approval.

The three taxation measures passed formed the compromising program worked out between the urban and rural members of the assembly. Suggestion had been made that only the Taft bill be re-passed, but this was met by emphatic opposition in caucus and all three were finally selected for passage. The bill of Rep. McDonald, Dayton, providing for octennial reassessment, the fourth measure of the program, was left out when the senate refused to act on it.

Other Bills Passed
Following is the list of measures passed over the governor's veto, by the house:

Rep. Taft, Hamilton county, receding the state's tax laws and imposing legal limitations on city and rural districts.

Rep. Albano, Miami, abolishing the township tax assessor, creating a county assessment board and making the county the unit for taxation.

Rep. Robinson, Lawrence, increasing penalties for failure to list property for taxation or for false returns.

Rep. Sullivan, Union, prohibiting candidates defeated at a primary from becoming candidate at a general election.

Rep. McKay, Mahoning, amending the statutes governing titles of corporations.

Rep. Chadwell, Jefferson, authorizing county surveyors to make emergency road repairs costing not more than $200 without advertising for bids.

Rep. Calvert, Clarke, authorizing state to accept John Bryan farm in Greene county bequeathed on condition that no religious services be held thereon.

Fine Movie Law Violators
Rep. Gordon, Logan, substituting heavy fines for jail sentences for violations of motion picture censor laws.

Rep. Ramsey, Lucas, enlarging powers of county commissioners in regard to county sewer districts and compensating them for duties by granting them a percentage of the cost of any sewer projects undertaken.

Sen. Carpenter, Jefferson, authorizing printing of appropriation acts separately from other enactments of the legislature.

Sen. Waitt, Cuyahoga, permitting the sale of a portion of the grounds of the Cleveland State hospital, the proceeds to be used for repairs to institution buildings.

Sen. Collier, Cuyahoga, authorizing courts to place on probation persons under suspended sentences, place them in charge of court establishments and terminate their periods of probation if advisable.

Sen. Liggett, Logan, making the appointment of the superintendent of the combined normal and industrial department of Wilberforce university, subject to approval of the state controlling board.

PAGE FROM MOTHER GOOSE

Persons With Names of Famous Characters Before United States Civil Service Commission.

One would not think of Mother Goose in connection with Uncle Sam, but recently when a woman took to the Civil Service commission the request for her transfer to a different department, the clerk whose duty it was to pass on such matters noticed that her name was Sprat, and he asked, in his most official manner: "Any relation to Jack Sprat?" "Yes," was the quiet answer, "he's my husband." Then, laughing at his astonishment, she continued: "His name is John, but everybody calls him Jack Sprat." The clerk scrutinized the papers further and added, "I suppose you have learned to eat lean meat by this time?" "Oh, yes," she replied, "we try to live up to our name." "All right, I'll order this issued," and he affixed his official O. K.

Another woman proved to have the odd name of Mrs. Eve Apple. Noticing the clerk's incredulous look, she remarked: "Yes, everybody smiles at my name, but you know history sometimes repeats itself." "Only, in this case," he interposed, "you accepted an apple instead of giving one."

Early Britons Used Coal.

Tools and cinders found near the ancient Roman wall in England indicate that the Britons used coal previous to the Roman invasion in 54 B. C. By the English people it was first used as a fuel in 852, and the blast furnace for the production of iron, in 1012. In America those intrepid Jesuit missionaries, Joliet and Marquette, discovered coal near the present site of Utica, Ill., in 1673. That the Indians were acquainted with numerous coal beds and actually burned these black "stones" instead of firewood, there can be no doubt.

PROFIT IN LOW-GRADE ORE

Mining Engineers See the Possibility, but Enormous Capital Will Have to Be Employed.

Radium-bearing pegmatites in various districts in Ontario, Canada, will eventually be profitably exploited, according to a writer in the Engineering and Mining Journal-Press of New York. He states that the pegmatites of the province undoubtedly contain in the aggregate a relatively enormous amount of radium and thorium minerals, but these occur in a widely disseminated condition. Low-grade ore containing a pound or two of uranium oxide to the ton might, under certain conditions, prove workable, the tailings constituting a refined ground feldspar product, for the pottery industries, that would be the main source of revenue, while the uranium minerals would be a by-product obtainable probably at a little extra expense. The application of a concentration process would remove not only the radium minerals, but also various impurities, such as magnetite, ilmenite, pyrite and tourmaline, thus improving the quality of the feldspar product and enabling deposits to be worked on a large scale. Such operations, however, could probably be successfully carried on only by a company with sufficient capital to produce and market ground feldspar in large quantities, mine mill and recover and refine the rare mineral by-products.

NAME NOT HOUSEHOLD WORD

When Governor Parker of Louisiana Realized How Unknown a Prominent Man Can Be.

Gov. John M. Parker of Louisiana relates this incident, in the New York Herald: "Pride goeth before a fall." Sometimes it is a real good thing to realize what an infinitesimal molecule a man is. Occasionally this fact is brought to the attention of the man in public life.

In 1912, shortly after my friend the lamented Theodore Roosevelt was shot, it was necessary for some of his loyal friends to keep his engagements, and it fell to my lot to speak in a number of western cities. Of course, no man could really take his place, but the experiences of some of the introductions were real rich.

"In one instance the chairman, after a lengthy introduction in which he practically made a speech with the usual glowing close, 'I now have the honor of presenting that prominent Southerner, excellent citizen, splendid American,' hesitated a moment, turned aside and in a stage whisper said, 'What is your name, quick?'"

Threw Girls Into Panic.

One girl swooned and several others, panic-stricken, rushed for exits when a noise which sounded to them like a "message from the dead" penetrated the stillness of the county morgue in Detroit.

The incident occurred when a party of 20 students from the Detroit Teachers' college was being shown the routine of the morgue.

A low whistle, somewhat similar to a breathing noise, came just as the morgue attendant was explaining how the morgue functioned. Skirts were grasped and amid shrieks the fair visitors dashed out of the place, one fainting on the way. The noise, it was later developed, was caused by some one blowing an old-fashioned speaking tube connecting the chambers and the office in an effort to get in communication with the morgue attendant.

The Logical Sex.

In the light of the fireplace sat the occasional philosopher, comfortably puffing his pipe as he surveyed as fine an audience as ever a man is blessed with. In another great leather chair lounged his most sympathetic friend. Curled like a kitten on the divan was his admiring wife.

"One cannot say," he continued, "that either men's or women's minds are inferior or superior, but undoubtedly they are different. For instance, it occurs to me, a trait of the feminine mind is that it cannot keep a discussion on an impersonal basis."

The "kitten" uncurred with a snap. "John, dear, you know that isn't true. I never make a conversation personal."

Forest Land Unprotected.

Approximately 166,000,000 acres of privately owned forest land are wholly unprotected from fire, says the forest service, United States Department of Agriculture. On many other areas the protection is incomplete and inadequate. Based on a six-year average, the annual loss of property from forest fires is $16,424,000. Yet a yearly expenditure of $9,263,000 would fairly protect all the privately owned timber lands in the United States.

Tornado's Freaks.

A tornado swept our section of the country one night. Just imagine our amazement upon waking from our peaceful slumber to find straws from a nearby straw stack driven like nails into the sides of a new barn. Our galvanized watering tank, which was 30 feet long and 15 feet wide, which had been set into the ground one foot and was half full of water, had been carried one-fourth of a mile and dropped.—Chicago Journal.

Choice Cargo Reaches Liverpool.

Apples, pears, beans, poultry, oysters, frozen meat, bacon, flour and bars for copper-making helped to make up the 10,000-ton miscellaneous cargo of an Atlantic liner which recently reached Liverpool from New York.—London Answers.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

Millions depend on S.S.S. to purify their Blood

SINCE the days of the Cherokee Indians, man has relied upon nature to produce certain barks and herbs to purify the blood. Today, the manufacturers of S. S. S. gather thousands of tons of these certain barks and herbs annually and prepare in concentrated form, scientifically proportioned, that great blood purifier, called S. S. S. This is why S. S. S., since 1826, has been such a great success. It has meant to millions of underweight men and women a plus in their strength.

Mr. James Chaloupka, Camp Sherman School, Chillicothe, Ohio, writes: "It gave me a better appetite and cleared my skin of pimples and blackheads."

Try it yourself. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical. Get a bottle today!

WILL NOT TRAVEL AS A CANDIDATE

PRESIDENT SAYS HIS WESTERN TRIP HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH RENOMINATION.

WILL TALK ON LIVE ISSUES

Chief Executive Also Wishes to Obtain
First-Hand Information on Alaska—
World Court Plan Doesn't Mean League Membership.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—A second authoritative word has come from the White House concerning the President's repugnance to anything in his forthcoming addresses to the country which would give the impression that he is to speak in part as President and in part as a candidate for renomination. It is apparent that President Harding has been much disturbed by stories to the effect that his speech-making will have renomination as one of its chief objects.

Tentative arrangements have been made by Mr. Harding to leave Washington June 20 for the West coast. He will speak in various cities on the way. It is expected that the President and his party, which will consist of several cabinet officers and other public officials, will reach Alaska about July 10. The stay in the northern territory will not be a long one; the return route has not yet been decided upon.

It has been made known at the White House that the President feels he can act more advisedly on Alaskan legislative matters after he has made a visit to the territory and has studied affairs at first hand. Alaska has been and still continues to be one of the sources of trouble for congress. There are two schools of opinion in Alaska itself as to what should be done to develop the territory. The conflict of views and of legislative suggestion has been going on for nearly twenty years. It is just as sharp today as ever it was.

Why He Will Make Speeches.

The batch of information from the White House which carried the word concerning this feeling of President Harding also brought the tidings that he is to speak on matters which seem to be of "the highest moment to the country." It is true that in some of the correspondence which has gone out from Washington the journey of the President has been referred to as a campaigning effort in behalf of renomination. It is doubtful, however, if anybody intended to convey the impression that the President was going to make a direct appeal for a renewed expression of confidence from the voters.

The political advisers of the President have urged that he speak to the country. Speech-making in behalf of measures to which an administration is committed cannot be separated readily from speech-making in behalf of faith in the promoter of the measures for which support is asked. So it seems to Washington that the trip necessarily must be one in behalf of the cause of renomination, as well as in behalf of measures which the administration thinks are good for the country.

Before this it has been written several times that the President intends to make the railroad problem one of the chief subjects of his addresses. It is evident from what has been learned from direct sources recently that he also intends to support his proposal for American membership in the international court, and more than this, that he is to undertake what Democrats say is the difficult task of making the people believe that entrance into the court in no wise means the weakening of antagonism toward any kind of membership in or relation to the League of Nations.

World League Still Worries.

Members of the official family of the administration and the directors of the Republican party's fortunes in Washington have not been able to hide symptoms of irritation because of the insistence of the Democrats, and of those Republicans who are kindly inclined to the cause of the League of Nations, that the President is showing an inclination to give heed to a change in public opinion and is working to find means, not to enter the League, but to secure something that shopkeepers, when desiring to substitute have a way of pronouncing "just as good."

Most of the men who are to be Mr. Harding's advisers in party matters and in campaign matters during the next fourteen months are the men who advised him in 1920. From what some of these men say, it is known they still think that anything like a surrender to the league advocates would be to commit party suicide. There are others among them who are just as strongly convinced that something must be done to meet the demand for a step by step approach to something which, if not the league, is something like the league.

Republican politicians say they are willing that the League of Nations shall be made the chief issue in the Presidential campaign of 1924. Leading Democrats say the same thing, for they seemingly believe that on this issue they can secure a reversal of the verdict of 1920.

ATTORNEY EXPIRES SUDDENLY IN AUTO

M. J. McGarry, Former County Prosecutor, Dies
On Way To Hospital.

East Liverpool, April 30.—Att'y. Michael John McGarry, 55, for 25 years a practicing attorney of this city, former city solicitor of East Liverpool and former prosecuting attorney of Columbiana county, died suddenly at 10 a. m. Sunday morning when enroute to Cleveland where he had made arrangements to enter the Lakeside hospital and undergo an operation today or tomorrow for the removal of a goiter.

Heart failure was the cause of death. Since last August, when the goiter first became troublesome, Att'y. McGarry had suffered much from heart trouble.

The end came suddenly and unexpectedly. Accompanied by his brother and law partner, Att'y. James F. McGarry, and Ellwood Pusey, a close friend, he left his home at 9 a. m. Sunday morning and started toward Cleveland, traveling by automobile. Att'y. McGarry was in good spirits and was laughing and talking with his companions when his body suddenly sagged and his head dropped down on the shoulder of his brother who was driving the car. The car was halted at once, but it was apparently within a moment or two that he was dead. He died in his brother's arms, apparently without pain.

Att'y. McGarry died after the automobile had proceeded about a mile beyond Lisbon.

Att'y. McGarry was one of the best known attorneys of Columbiana county. He received his degree of Bachelor of Law at the University of Cincinnati and was admitted to the Columbiana county bar on May 20, 1898. He was a member of St. Aloysius Catholic church, the Southern Columbiana County Bar association, the Knights of Columbus, and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

Other matters of minor importance were also disposed of. Judge Lodge Riddle was chairman of the meeting.

BIRDS BECAME A NUISANCE

Passenger Pigeons Nested in Such Numbers That They Completely Destroyed the Trees.

The passenger pigeon presents one of the marvels of bird life. A century ago this bird, now extinct, existed in flocks of such gigantic proportions that the numbers appear almost incredible. The general roosting places of these vast hordes were usually located in the tallest and densest forests. As they were birds of very powerful flight, they apparently often ranged several miles during the day, but at evening returned in a body to the roost. The tall trees for thousands of acres were completely killed, and the ground strewn with massive branches torn down by the clustering weight of the birds which had rested upon them.

Their nesting places were even more wonderful. In Michigan the largest nesting place in recent years occurred in 1876 or 1877, and was 28 miles long and some three or four miles in width. The last nesting place of any importance was also in Michigan in 1881, but only of moderate size, perhaps eight miles long. In the nesting places every tree of suitable size was loaded down with nests, a large hemlock, for instance, holding from 20 to 40. At the large Michigan nesting it was estimated that 500 nesters were at work, and that their average catch was 20,000 birds apiece.

Man Dances 132 Hours, Setting A Non-Stop Record

Youngstown, April 30. — Albert Kish, world champion marathon dancer, reluctantly ceased the moving of his feet at 12.04 a. m. Sunday after establishing a world record of 132 hours and one minute of continuous dancing.

A crowd of 3,000 people went wild when the music ceased and stormed the platform to which Kish and his plucky little dancing partner, Mrs. Bessie Edwards, were lifted on the shoulder of admiring friends.

Apparently fresh and, according to his trainer Dr. J. E. Barnes of the Ohio Hotel physical culture parlors, is in as good a condition as when he started Monday noon, Kish remonstrated and asked that a truck be provided to take him to Avon park.

"I am good for another 24 hours," he shouted, but when he was told that he began his marathon in Youngstown and that he should finish it here he gave in and sat down.

With Bessie on his lap and almost buried with flowers, Kish smilingly shook hands with at least a thousand men and women before police, under the direction of Capt. Albert Jenkins practically cleared a way through the throng to the dressing room.
